

12800 Escanaba Drive, Suite D
DeWitt, MI 48820
517-669-1345
www.cceami.org

Contact: Dru L. Mitchell
President & CEO, CCEA
517-669-1345
mitchelld@cceami.org

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Tim Skubick to Speak at Clinton County Economic Alliance Forum

DeWitt, MI, August 15, 2016—The Clinton County Economic Alliance (CCEA) is pleased to welcome political commentator Tim Skubick to the next Member Meeting & Community Forum, sponsored by Sparrow Clinton Hospital. The event is on Wednesday, September 14, 8:00 a.m. at AgroLiquid, 3055 West M-21 in St. Johns. CCEA welcomes all Clinton County residents and business owners to the meeting. There is no charge to attendees.

Mr. Skubick has covered Michigan government and politics for 45 years, making him the longest serving capitol correspondent in state history. He anchors the public television series, Off the Record, a weekly political talk program and covers the capitol for WJBK-TV and WWJ News Radio 950 in Detroit. He has authored two books on state politics and is a member of the Journalism and Broadcast Halls of Fame. Mr. Skubick has been awarded four Emmys and holds B.A. and M.A. degrees from MSU.

“We are fortunate to be able to provide such a thoughtful, entertaining, and highly respected speaker to the Clinton County community,” said Dru L. Mitchell, CCEA President & CEO. “Tim’s keen political insight has been honed by his long-term participation in the political arena.”

Those interested in attending are requested to make a reservation by Noon on Friday, September 9, to 517-669-1345 or carrs@cceami.org.

About CCEA

For nearly 10 years the Clinton County Economic Alliance has provided one-stop business assistance to companies based in Clinton County. The CCEA is a private-public partnership funded by its members who represent the business community, educational institutions, and local governments.

#####